

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST NYASIA ASHFORD

Rooted in vulnerability and self-trust, Nyasia's portraits explore what it means to unlearn who we were told to be. Through texture and stillness, her work illuminates devotion, forgiveness, and the powerful return to one's truest self.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

EMILY BEAL

Driven by curiosity and a love of storytelling, Emily creates elaborate character designs shaped by dance, space, and her own identity. Working across acrylics, gouache, graphite, and digital media, she aims to spark wonder and invite viewers into the worlds she imagines.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

JOSHUA CARAWAY

Joshua's abstract acrylic work explores emotion, connection, and creative freedom. Guided by color and movement, his paintings become meditations on feeling and form, inviting viewers to slow down, look inward, and find meaning within their own experiences.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

BROOKLYN DELON

Brooklyn explores digital art and animation to bring characters and ideas to life, inspired by a lifelong passion for making and imagining. Her work celebrates growth, creativity, and the freedom she's found as an artist at Howard.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST KEAGAN DULANEY

Keagan reimagines the Black experience through a kaleidoscope of joy, struggle, tradition, and imagination. Her work uses art as a tool to envision the world she wants to see and to tell our stories with depth and complexity.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

TAYLOR DUNN

Taylor merges traditional art skills with digital technology, blending painterly illustration, 3D modeling, and animation to push the boundaries of semi-realism. Her work explores how multiple mediums can unite into captivating, imaginative visual worlds.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

NONI GARRETT

Noni is a multimedia artist and creative director specializing in interactive design, graphic work, and mixed media. As a senior in Interactive Media & Design at Howard, she creates bold, multidisciplinary visuals that bridge technology, storytelling, and art.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST JADE HALL

Jade's textile work draws inspiration from Cape Cod's coastline, using yarn and intricate forms to imagine the unseen worlds beneath the ocean's surface. Her piece invites viewers to look deeper, honoring the mystery, beauty, and quiet power of the sea.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

KYRA MARSHALL

Kyra combines clay and animation to explore expressive, animated forms. Her vibrant masks and tiles use bold color and character to capture emotion, drawing inspiration from stop-motion craft and cinematic nostalgia.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

CHRISTIAN MARTIN

Christian's work reflects on his upbringing in Dawson, Georgia, honoring the people and places that shaped his identity. Through this piece, he expresses gratitude for his roots and the community that formed him.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

NIAMBI MILLS

Niambi's photography centers the everyday lives of Black youth, offering counterstories filled with movement, joy, and humanity. Inspired by Gordon Parks, she uses portraiture to challenge harmful stereotypes and illuminate young people living fully, artistically, and unapologetically in their truth.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

ISABELLA MURPHY

Isabella paints richly detailed scenes that celebrate realism, culture, and everyday life. As an Afro-Latina artist, she weaves Caribbean and Latin heritage into her work, inviting viewers—especially Afro-Latinx audiences—to see themselves reflected with pride and recognition.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

MYKAYLA OSBORNE

Mykayla's work draws from nostalgia, family, and Southern roots, using found materials, collage, and mixed media to explore belonging. Through storytelling and experimentation, she transforms everyday objects into reflections of Black identity, memory, and the resilience found in community.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

NIA PALMER

Nia creates vibrant, dreamlike worlds filled with color, music, nostalgia, and recurring blue figures. Her work channels childlike wonder and celebrates Black imagination, giving form to the daydreams of her younger self.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

EDEN RADCLIFF

Eden's paintings explore Black expression, cultural influence, and racial injustice. Using nails, accessories, flags, and lyrics, she challenges stereotypes and amplifies the stories of those erased or overlooked.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

JAZZLYN RAINEY

Inspired by her travels in Spain, Jazzlyn's work captures the spirit of duende—the powerful, transcendent force artists feel in deep creation. Her piece reflects the emotion, intensity, and creative energy she encountered abroad.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

KEITH ROBINSON

Keith blends layered, semi-abstract backgrounds with luminous subjects to create ethereal, dreamlike scenes. His work honors Black identity through memory, spiritualism, and nostalgia, offering viewers spaces that feel both transcendent and familiar.

BISON AT BASEL

POWERED BY THE CHADWICK A. BOSEMAN COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

TATUM SABIN

Tatum works with acrylics and recycled materials to bridge communities and celebrate sustainable creativity. Her art uplifts Black joy and encourages people of all abilities to imagine better futures and brighter tomorrows.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

NAOMI SHAVISS

Naomi brings comic and cartoon worlds to life through storyboarding, illustration, and character design. Meticulous and imaginative, she creates art that invites viewers to step inside the vibrant worlds she dreams and builds.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

AMARI WEATHERS

Amari uses cyanotype and mixed media to explore memory, place, and narrative, capturing the quiet beauty of Washington, DC's landscapes. Her work layers photography and design to create visual stories that honor the spaces where community, nature, and lived experience intersect.

MEET OUR FEATURED STUDENT ARTIST

NAIMA WHITTED

Naima's work blends storytelling and emotion, pairing technical precision with her own stylistic vision. She creates moments that honor diverse cultures and perspectives, inviting viewers to interpret and connect with each piece in their own way.